AN OPIUM FRAUD.

Fifty Opium Ties Prove to be Fifted

Shortly after Officers Robinson and Baker made their supposed opium capture of fifty tins on Christmas Eve, one of the tins was opened and found to contain pol. to hold the same innocuous substance in a state of decay.

The police authorities noticed a difference in the labels from those on genuine opium tins, besides which the tine had an ancient air about them. Their theory is that the poi was put up to work a swin-dle on a fresh Chinaman, or else to create a false suspicion against the authorities themselves. They claim to have detected the bogus appearance of the tins on sight.

The Chinaman who was arrested with the stuff of course swears to his own lamblike innocence. He was directed to a shop on School street by an informer, and was taking the supposed opium away to surrender to the police, when the two officers pounced upon him. He is at all events all right so far as the opium law is concerned, because be had no opium in possession beyond the name of the drug on the labels. Where the name of the San Francisco importing firm is usually put in with a rubber stamp, in these labels it was printed with the rest of the matter at the original impressirable lot of household furniture sion.

THE TAVER IER MONUMENT.

Proceedings of the Bohemien Club in Relation to the Memorial.

When the officers of the Bohemian Club of San Francisco received the notice of the death at Honolulu of Jules Tavernier it was thought that something more than the usual announcement of such an event was due to an old member and distinguished artist.

All of his works in the possession of the club were brought together and placed at the southern end of the large parlor. They were arranged by his brother artists so as to give the best effect, and dressed with mourning wreaths and drapery.
On a small frame in front was placed the letter of Mr. Joseph Strong informing the club of his death. The memorial remained for three weeks and was seen by many others than the members of the association.

Some months ago it was proposed to place a stone, sent from his fendant was released on bail in the nominal sum of $100, his surety the distant land where he died, and a subscription paper was laid upon the table in the parlor. By the last voyage of the Consuelo the monument arrived in Honolulu, having been sent by Messrs. Spreckels Bros. without charge, and by the considerate courtesy of the Minister of Finance the duties were remitted. A wide and deep foundation of conwho on the 17th inst. lifted the monument and set it over the grave. The monument is three feet square, eight feet to the base of the pyramid, and ten feet in total

SAD BEREAVEMENT.

The wife of Capt. Dabel, of the Hawaiian bark W. B. Godfrey, died Saturday evening after a very short illness. She was out driving the previous day, being taken with convulsions that evening. Dr. McKibbin attended her, calling Drs. Miner and Furry in consultation, but without avail. The dead lady was daughter of Capt. Harrison and was married about a year ago. Her husband's vessel was just entering San Francisco when last mail left. The funeral took place from the residence of Mrs. Dabel's parents Sunday afternoon, Dr. Beckwith, pastor of Central Union Church, conducting services. As the W. B. Godfrey has been sold, it is expecta surprise. Many, especially con-sumers, will await the result, if there home by next steamer. ed that Capt. Dabel will return

WHO OWNS THEM?

The S. F. Alta of the 18th instant says: "The C. D. Bryant, which will probably clear to-day for Honolulu, has aboard a deckload of hogs and horses, and if the former keep up the squealing they indulged in yesterday throughout the passage the crew will have a lively time. All yesterday carpenters were engaged in building a covering from bulwark to bulwark and from cabin to forecastle, to prevent big seas from coming aboard and smothering the animals."
